

In contentious and non-contentious matters, Dr. Rosa Sanchez is advising the participants of trade and industry, e.g. banks, enterprises, insurance companies and shipping companies such as charter firms, ship management companies and shipyards around the globe. She is available for consultation to private and public investors for maritime, real estate and private equity assets. Dr. Rosa Sanchez also assists companies in starting and conducting their business in Spain and South America as well as Spanish and South American clients to set up and follow their business in Germany.

Dr. Rosa Sanchez is a lawyer qualified in German law in 2000. She has a 15 year expertise in international project finance related to plant construction, ship construction and real estate as well as to maritime and marine matters and maritime insurances. She gained her expertise with various positions in international steel related enterprises and private maritime industries and law offices which had a major part of their business in Germany, Asia, South America and Southern Europe. Her main legal areas are international commercial law and company law. Her core areas are international contracting, project finance, capital markets, investments and investment solutions and securities.

After her qualification as a German lawyer in 2000, Dr. Rosa Sanchez joined the MAN Group as General Counsel and assisted its management in contractual and financing matters related with the shipping and plant construction industry worldwide. After that she joined small private industries and law firms in Germany focussing on shipping and ship finance matters before she joined the OwnerShip - Group, a German KG - House located in Hamburg (Germany), in 2005 as General Counsel and General Manager. In this position, she consulted the group in all relevant legal matters, specially ship construction and ship financing matters as well as capital investments in the field of shipping funds/ ship shareholdings.

In June 2014, she established together with her partners BHM Penlaw Rechtsanwälte Hermes Sanchez von Cramm Partnerschaft mbB, Hamburg, which is a member of "BHM Penlaw EWIV - EEIG".

Dr. Rosa Sanchez offers consultation in German, English, Spanish and French.

T: +49 40 3410 6798-14
E: sanchez@bhm-penlaw.com

© BHM Penlaw EWIV – EEIG, 2015.